

Weddings of Heart

ADDITIONAL SERVICES OFFERED

In addition to officiating wedding ceremonies and supporting people in preparing for marriage, I create and facilitate personalized ceremonies and workshops for life's transitions supporting people in exploring and healing their relationship to their spiritual essence.

BABY BLESSINGS AND NAMING CEREMONIES

The birth of a child, or the entry of any child into a family is a wondrous event! As family and loved ones of a child, you are brought into this child's life to inspire, teach, and to love. Welcoming a new child, through the vehicle of a baby blessing or baby naming ceremony allows you to acknowledge, celebrate and give thanks for the presence of a new child in the life of your family and the larger community.

Stepchildren and/or adopted children can be welcomed, blessed and celebrated by their new family through these same kinds of rituals and ceremonies.

HOUSE and OFFICE BLESSINGS

When moving into a new space, it is a wonderful experience to "make it yours" by blessing your space with your heartfelt intentions and energy. A house or office blessing allows you to clear away what came before you in the space, and to consciously extend your energy and intention within each room.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AND FUNERALS

When someone passes over from this life, it can unleash an array of emotions for those loved ones who have shared their lives with the deceased. I try to assist them deal with any grief, anger, guilt, relief or mixed feelings through the crafting of a memorial service or special ceremony created with their loved one in mind. I consider it a privilege to support and honor this transition and bring forward of a meaningful, personalized funeral or memorial service.

WELCOME TO ELDERHOOD!

The life passage into Elderhood can be made by the recognition of Retirement, or a significant birthday year. Taking time to acknowledge, appreciate and honor your entry into the Wisdom Years can allow you to consciously celebrate your life, review and acknowledge your life's lessons and set intentions for how you wish to share your wisdom and experience in the years to come.

SPIRITUAL SUPPORT AND GUIDANCE

I offer individual guidance in helping you recognize, discover, nurture, strengthen and heal your relationship to Spirit and God. My approach to spirituality is non-denominational and non-sectarian and is not based upon specific religious values or doctrine. My intention is to support people to awaken more to their relationship with the divine.

WELECOME TO WOMANHOOD!

In traditional cultures and societies young women were recognized for their transition into womanhood when they began their menstruation. A personal welcoming ceremony for a young woman, and the significant women in her life can support her in making this entry into womanhood special. I support mothers and daughters and their community by developing a creative process that honors and acknowledges this life passage.
